

January 12, 2012

Newton County School System Announces Early Release Day For Students

All Newton County public schools will release students early on Friday, January 13 for teacher professional learning activities.

Elementary students will be dismissed at 11:15 a.m.; high school students will be released at 12:15 p.m. and middle school students are scheduled to depart at 1:15 p.m. (Please note that times for middle and high school early dismissal are reversed in the student handbook.)

Lunch will be served before students are dismissed and all students who ride school buses home in the afternoons will be transported to their normal bus stops.

As the following Monday, January 16 is the Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Holiday, students will have a three-day holiday weekend. Students will report back to school on Tuesday, January 17.

***